Invitation

We warmly welcome you to be an integral part of our upcoming event - AI and The Law, under the theme "A partnership for progress." This groundbreaking event is designed to explore the exciting integration of Artificial Intelligence (AI) into legal practice, aiming to elevate efficiency, reduce errors, and enhance the overall quality of work within the legal profession.

This conference will provide invaluable insights into strategies and techniques to leverage AI in legal practice while addressing key concerns around ethics and data privacy. Our agenda covers various AI applications in legal practices, such as document automation, e-discovery, due diligence, legal analytics, chatbots, predictive coding, and more.

By sponsoring this pivotal event, your organisation will have the unique opportunity to introduce your programs and services to a diverse audience of legal and tech professionals, government officials, thought leaders, investors, financiers, and development partners. The connections you build at this conference could pave the way for enduring collaborations that extend far beyond the event itself.

We offer a range of flexible sponsorship options, each designed to enhance your brand's visibility, maximise engagement, and provide you with the most advantageous exposure. We are more than willing to work with you to tailor your sponsorship package to best align with your organisation's needs and goals.

The integration of AI in the legal field is not just a trend; it is an indispensable component of the profession's future. We invite you to join us in shaping that future at the AI & The Law Conference brought to you by Supralex. Together, we can explore how this critical partnership between AI and law can lead to greater efficiency, accuracy, and success in our practices.

We are eagerly looking forward to discussing the unique ways your organisation can be involved. To secure your place at the conference and choose the sponsorship option most appropriate for your organisation, please contact us at your earliest convenience.

About the Event

AI and The Law

“A partnership for progress?”

This conference offers a unique opportunity for intellectual collaboration between luminaries in the field of Artificial Intelligence and renowned legal practitioners. Meticulously curated, the event features panel discussions, guest speakers, and networking sessions, all designed to facilitate a rich exchange of knowledge, perspectives, and AI applications in law practice. Additionally, it serves as an international CPD programme, focusing on the innovative implementation of AI while addressing its ethics, governance, security, and opportunities.

What Will You Learn?

The conference will embark upon an in-depth exploration of diverse facets of AI application within legal practice, offering indispensable cognizance and skills to traverse the swiftly transforming topography of AI within the realm of jurisprudence. Together, we shall investigate the symbiosis of technology and law, elucidating how this conjunction can catalyse enhanced efficiency, precision, and triumph within our practices through applications such as:

- Document automation
- Legal research
- E-discovery
- Due diligence
- Contract analysis and review
- Legal analytics
- Chatbots and virtual assistants
- Document management
- Predictive coding
- Billing and time tracking

CPD Compliance

Digital Transformation and CPD Compliance

Embrace the Future, Stay Ahead of the Curve

In the rapidly evolving legal landscape, staying updated is not just an option but a necessity. This event, brought to you by Supralex, offers an unparalleled opportunity for solicitors to not only meet their annual Continuing Professional Development (CPD) requirements but also to enhance their skill set, enabling them to leverage the latest AI tools in the market.

Why Supralex?

CPD Compliance Made Easy

As a legal practitioner in Ireland, you are required to complete a minimum of 20 hours of CPD activities each calendar year, with at least 3 of these hours in management and professional development skills. Supralex offers a turnkey solution to meet these requirements.

A Partnership For Progress: Skill Enhancement

This event is structured to provide you with the necessary skills to navigate the digital age effectively. Our sessions, conducted by industry professionals, will introduce you to the most recent AI tools and technologies that are significantly influencing the legal sector.

Ensure Professional Relevance

With the current influx of technological advancement, keeping pace with the latest developments is of paramount importance. This event serves as a platform for you to stay informed about the most recent trends and innovations, thereby ensuring your professional practice remains pertinent and competitive.

Join Supralex

This event represents a comprehensive platform for education, professional interaction, and forward-thinking in law. We invite you to join us in meeting your CPD obligations, augmenting your professional abilities, and advancing towards the future of legal practice.
